Sixty-Six Persons Known to Be Lost—List May Be Increased

FULLY 5,000 HOMELESS

Majority Are Without Food and Clothing—Every Store Seems to Have Been Destroyed

DAMAGE WILL TOTAL MILLIONS

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Sixty-six persons are known to have lost their lives in the flood which swept three West Virginia mountain streams yesterday, rendering 10,000 persons homeless and causing a property loss estimated at $5,000,000.

Reports were still meager tonight but authorities expressed the belief that the death toll might reach 100. Two companies of the Second Regiment West Virginia National Guard are already in the flood district with tents and provisions. All supplies intended for flood sufferers would be handled free of charge by railroads entering the devastated districts.

Reports tonight indicated that the greatest loss of life was at Ferndale, where 16 persons are known to be dead. The number of dead at other villages and mining settlements follows:

Esksdale—5.
United—5.
Miami—8.
Dawes—2.
Drybranch—3.
Holly—11.
Giles—5.
Oakley—7.
Leewood—1.
Acme—1.
Cherokee—2.

Many bodies are believed to have been washed down the streams towards the Ohio river and probably never will be recovered.

The excursion train carrying 300 Sunday school picnicers which was marooned between two creeks arrived at St. Albans tonight after the passengers had spent twenty-four hours in the day coaches without food.

On the Cabin Creek branch of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad another passenger train lies on its side with no tracks near it. All the passengers escaped safely.

The flood came upon the people early Wednesday morning, W. A. Smith, an insurance broker of Cincinnati who was in the district declared that water rolled down the narrow valley, foam crested.

Houses were swept from their foundations and women and children were drowned before they could reach the hills. Couriers from rescue parties returned with pressing appeals for help. Fully 5,000 persons are said to be homeless, the majority of them without food and clothing. Every store in Cabin Creek valley seems to have been washed away and its contents destroyed.

The first battalion of the second Virginia infantry established headquarters at Ronda, four miles from Cabin Creek Junction, from which to direct relief measures. The men took with them tents, 25,000 travel rations and large quantities of other supplies and more were forwarded to them later. All of the mules from the machine gun companies were taken as the railways in the valley will be out of commission for days to come.

Dr. S. L. Jepson, commissioner of health of West Virginia, sent a force of sanitary engineers into the district to take such means as they saw fit to prevent disease.

Scores of men came out of the valley late today, some walking to points on the railroad and trolleys where they could get transportation. Many were in search of missing families.

DEADLOCK DEVELOPS IN NEGOTIATIONS

BOARD UNDECIDED WHETHER TO MEET AGAIN WITH EITHER SIDE

Knapp Asserts Board Will Continue Efforts to Adjust Differences Between Railroad Brotherhoods and Their Employers

New York, Aug. 10.—President Wilson will be called upon to take a hand in the settlement of the differences between the four railroad brotherhoods and their employers, unless an apparent deadlock in the negotiations which developed today can be broken, it was indicated here tonight by representatives of both factions.

After it had heard contentions of workers and those of railroad managers the United States board of mediation and conciliation was undecided tonight as to whether they would meet again with representatives of either side.

Martin A. Knapp, one of the federal mediators said: "There is a deadlock on the face of it. Whether we can change it lies in the bosom of the future."

He added that the board would continue its efforts to adjust the differences.

What concessions, if any, the railroad managers offered could not be ascertained. The mediators met the managers secretly this afternoon sitting in conference with them more than three hours.

The mediators later in the day heard the side of the Brotherhoods whose chief demand is for an eight hour working day and time and a half for overtime. It was said the Brotherhoods would affirm those demands.

EXPLAIN REQUEST TO GERMAN
EMBASSY WAS AN INADVERTENCE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—State department officials today explained that the recent request to the German embassy for permission to publish one of Count Von Bernstorff's notes on the settlement of the Lusitania case was one of inadvertence.

At first it was denied that any such request had been made but an investigation disclosed that a letter prepared by a subordinate official has been signed by either Secretary Lansing or Acting Secretary Polk and had been transmitted to the German embassy.

State department officials declared that too much importance had been attached to the request in German official quarters and that it was not as interpreted an indication that Germany's provision would be accepted.

BELIEVE RADIO CALLS MAY BE FROM BREMEN

SENDER REFUSES TO DISCLOSE HIS IDENTITY

Calls for Telefunken Station, New York, Using Private Signal of North German Lloyd Liner Breslau—States He is on Coal Ship

New York, Aug. 11.—Two strange wireless calls for Telefunken station, New York, heard at Sandy Hook this morning and the refusal of the sender to disclose his identity after questioned by the shore stations led to the belief that the call might have been from the German submarine Bremen. This could not be verified. The caller signed his message with the signal "BDU" which is the private signal of the North German Lloyd Steamer Breslau believed to be tied up in the port of New Orleans. The mysterious caller would say only that he was on board a coal steamer. All German ships before the war used the Telefunken call.

The first of the wireless flashes was received at 1:50 a. m., and the sender was told by the shore stations that the Telefunken station was then closed. An hour later the sender asked the shore station at Searate to ascertain when the Telefunken station would be opened.

WILL CONTEST RECENT ACTION OF COMMERCE COMMISSION IN COURTS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 10.—Recent action of the interstate commerce commission in ordering railroads to increase their rates between Illinois points and East St. Louis and Granite City will be contested in the courts, the Illinois public utilities commission announced today.

The federal commission held that the rates to East St. Louis were discriminatory inasmuch as a passenger for instance from Chicago, can buy a ticket to East St. Louis for $1.68 less than he must pay to St. Louis just across the Mississippi river.

Under the Illinois law railroads can charge only two cents a mile between Illinois points. The interstate commerce commission has ordered the rate to East St. Louis and Granite City to be increased to 2.4 cents a mile.

This, the Illinois commission contends is an interference with interstate rates and the commission announces it will not accept the ruling without a court fight.

CONSIDER NET PROFIT EXCISE TAX ON MANUFACTURES SOLD / BROAD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—A net profit excise tax of manufacturers selling goods to foreign governments, as a substitute for the munitions tax in revenue bill is being considered by Democrats of the senate finance committee. It will probably be agreed on tomorrow for submission to the Democratic caucus. It is expected that the proposed plan would apply particularly to manufacturers who have made fortunes from the European war and would add millions to the revenue of the government.

The committee agreed to an amendment which would authorize the president to take retaliatory action against nations which prohibit the importation of any article, "the product of the soil or industry of the United States and not injurious to health or morals."

Another amendment would admit all dyestuffs and coal tar medicinal derivatives free of duty during the European war, and would postpone operation of proposed tariff on such practices, widow's pension, civil war general importation shall be renewed.

DEMOCRATS TO WORK WITHOUT CO-OPERATION OF REPUBLICANS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—With their offer of a compromise legislative program which might lead to early adjournment of congress rejected by the Republicans, Democratic senate leaders decided tonight to drive along without Republican co-operation in an effort to dispose of pending legislation by September 1st.

Progressive Republicans refused to be bound by any program which would prevent action on the corrupt practices, widow's pension, civil veterans retirement and immigration bills.

A resolution was adopted rejecting the Democratic proposal and urging passage of the immigration bill before adjournment.

Democratic senators said tonight that no change in the legislative program drafted recently by the party caucus now was contemplated.

DISCUSS CAMPAIGN ISSUES IN SENATE

DEBATE CROWDS LEGISLATION INTO THE BACKGROUND

Townsend Supports Hughes' Charge That Durand Was Retired for Political Reasons—Democrats Congratulate Republicans for Finding An Issue in the Incident.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Issues of the national campaign crowded legislation into the background today in the senate, and virtually the only progress made with the pending shipping bill was the reading of the amended measure.

Senator Townsend (Republican) made a speech supporting the charge of Charles E. Hughes that E. Dana Durand was retired as director of the census for political reasons. Senator Townsend asserted that Secretary Redfield of the commerce department was mistaken in stating that Mr. Durand voluntarily resigned.

Several Democrats extended their congratulations to the Republicans for having found an issue in the Durand incident.

Senator Penrose (Republican) joined in the discussion with an attack upon civil service administration and the hypocrisy of administration heads in the Durand incident. Senators Oliver and Jones (Republicans) and other senators on both sides continued the political debate for several hours.

Senator Lewis the Democratic whip replying to Mr. Hughes' recent reference to President Wilson's "too proud to fight" speech said that those who admired the independent intelligence of the Republican nominee deplored that he had "sundered to the yelp and bark of Blanche, sweetheart, and tray in the refrain of too proud to fight, charging use of the expression as a confession of weakness or cowardice on the part of the president, speaking for himself and his country."

The shipping bill finally was taken up again just before adjournment. Most of the members were absent. Senator Jones charged that the bill was a violation of the economic promise of the Democratic platform of 1912. He estimated that more than $750,000,000 in all would be needed to care for American shipping.

HUGHES ATTACKS WILSON REGIME

Charge Waste Particularly With Reference to River and Harbor Bill

SPEAKS AT FARGO, N. D.

Nominee Asserts He Stands for Business-Like Administration of Affairs of U. S.

SPEAKS AT BILLINGS TODAY

FARGO, N. D., Aug. 10.—Charles E. Hughes tonight assailed the present administration for inefficiency, waste and extravagance, particularly with reference to its river and harbor bill.

"The rivers and harbors bill, known to the people as the 'pork barrel' bill," Mr. Hughes said, "is largely money wasted, as there is no expert examination to determine what expenditures are needed."

"On the contrary it very largely depends on who are the influential men representing particular districts and what appropriations are obtained in this district and that district for this man and that man. It ought to be stopped. If I am president, to the best of my ability, I propose to stop it."

"Four years ago our opponents arraigned the Republican party for extravagance and waste and reckless expenditure. Then they proceeded to be more lavish in appropriations than the Republican party had been."

"Now I have no apologies for Republican extravagance. I don't stand for what I don't believe to be right simply because it is under the banner of a particular party."

"My friends, I stand for a business like administration of the government of the United States not for politics, not to reward friends, not to build up a personal machine, not to put myself in any particular position but to administer honestly the affairs of the United States."

In closing Mr. Hughes said: "I do not profess to carry with me a panacea. I do not profess to be able to foretell in every detail the future. But I do profess to have some ability in analyzing facts and in understanding situations and to the best of that ability I want to serve the United States."

The nominee will deliver a night address at Billings, Mont., tomorrow.

Other leaders suggested formal approval of the parties which had endorsed the equal suffrage movement, while another element urged the endorsement of Charles E. Hughes, the Republican nominee.

MONDAY—Return of Charles Chaplin in "THE VAGABOND"

A SINGULAR CRAFT.

On the east side of the square yesterday there was moored a singular craft which attracted much attention. It was a roadster automobile and unusually constructed and from its appearance it had seen plenty of rough usage. It was hung almost to the ground while the engine revolved on a shaft to which was attached a wheel and passing around that wheel and extending to the rear axle, some six feet distant, was a belt of peculiar workmanship. It was a strip of heavy leather, an inch wide and to it were riveted cogs consisting of heavy bits of leather perhaps half an inch thick and about three-fourths of an inch square at the base. This conveyed the propelling power and from its appearance the rakish looking craft might be able to give the dust to many far more pretentious.

So much has been said about whiskers in the present campaign that M. L. Hildreth, Republican candidate for nomination for member of the legislature from this district, is beginning to point with pride to the fact that his face has not been beardless for many, many years. It is this or some other reason that makes Mr. Hildreth's picture conspicuous among the many candidates whose faces now greet the public on every hand. There are candidates' portraits "to the right of them, candidates' pictures to the left of them" as people journey along the city streets or even on country highways.

The most recent talk about whiskers politically is that Senator J. Hamilton Lewis was chosen to trail Charles Evans Hughes largely because of the beard which has been for the Illinois senator a great advertising medium and given him a certain amount of fame the country over.

Mann Defeated Southern Aid Plan

So many "crimes" are done in the name of charity—that is, crimes of extravagance, at least—that it becomes a part of real statesmanship to occasionally block the way. In congress so called relief measures are from time to time introduced based on pictures of terrible suffering resulting from disaster which nothing can alleviate except government funds. Occasionally the need is real but more often such appeals are better summed up as raids on the treasury.

Evidently Republican leader Mann had this idea of the $540,000 flood relief appropriation proposed for North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Tennessee and Mississippi. At any rate Mr. Mann opposed the proposition and under the rules of the house his single objection was all that was necessary to defeat it. Mr. Mann, like all his colleagues in congress, is not always right but his general record there has evidenced a broad grasp of the needs of the country and a general understanding of the wishes of the people as a whole.

Hitting the Mark

Even some Republicans have felt that Mr. Hughes' campaign speeches thus far have been too fruitful in charges against the administration and have failed to realize that the candidate has been busy for weeks past gathering together ammunition for the broadsides he is now hurling at the enemy.

Some realization of the fact that Candidate Hughes is not going to make indiscriminate charges that he cannot substantiate is evidenced in the Durand incident. Mr. Hughes charged that Mr. Durand was removed from his post as director of the census and that he was a man who had fitted himself specially for this work by years of training. Secretary Redfield denied the state-

Rippling Rhymes
By WALT MASON

SLAUGHTER

"We killed a thousand Germans," remarks the dauntless Russ; "this sort of thing determines the victory for us. We captured many rifles, a mortar and a bomb, and other warlike trifles, which shows we're going some." "As frolicsome as kittens we marched into the fray, and slew ten thousand Britons," the fighting Germans say. Each day we read the story of death and all its works, of Frenchmen dead and gory of desecrated Turks. The Prussian and the Roman go forth to fight each other; perhaps they shear the to-morrow, and maybe they are shown; the sum of all their striving, is useless, empty, vain; The warriors surviving may brag about those they slay, but better would be boasting of fields of oats and rye, of corn ears fit for roasting, and pumpkins ripe for pie; of orchards nobly bearing, and gardens filled with greens, and hardy vines a-wearing a wealth of lima beans, of large green water-melons grown in the fertile mud—but kings and kindred felons are not yet tired of blood.

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

ment and said that Mr. Durand resigned voluntarily. Then Mr. Hughes came forward with a signed statement from the former census director stating unequivocally that his resignation was requested by the administration.

Mr. Hughes' whole political history justifies the presumption that in the present campaign he is not willing to make any charges or assertions that he cannot substantiate. Some of his charges thus far have been so caustically worded that, as before indicated, even some Republicans have felt that the candidate was making too sharp an onslaught, but evidently Mr. Hughes is only hurling facts and is hitting the mark.

What Prices

Wheat prices have increased in such a sensational way in recent days and weeks that there have come sharp advances in the flour market also. Just where the wheat prices are going to stop is a question that time only will settle. The damage done by black rust in the north seemingly was not exaggerated in reports, and this is a legitimate basis for part of the increase. The government report recently issued also shows that the crop will not come up to expectations. But the big jump of 12 to 13 cents in the past week is attributed by most people to a corner on the market.

There are two or three interests, it is said, seeking for control and many grain men are predicting that $1.50 wheat is certain and that it will not be at all surprising if the figure gets to the $2 mark. If the increase continues some few men will make vast sums of money, many other men will lose great sums and millions will suffer because of the high price that they must pay.

Local elevators yesterday were paying $1.35 for this year's wheat of good quality and from $1.20 to $1.25 for 1915 wheat which was not equal in quality to the crop this year and in most instances must go to the market with a No. 3 grade.

Senator Sherman and the Primary

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat yesterday printed a statement that Senator L. Y. Sherman is taking a hand in the Republican primary election and has come out openly in support of State Senator Richard J. Barr of Joliet as against Edward J. Brundage of Chicago, both candidates for the nomination as attorney general. The Globe's story is based upon a statement made by A. T. Spivey of St. Louis, president of the Southern Illinois Republican editorial association.

Those who have read the repeated statements appearing in the Chicago papers that Senator Sherman proposes to keep absolutely neutral in the primary contest, will need some further evidence to support the St. Louis story before they will believe that the senator has receded from his previous position which was certainly logical under all the facts.

Tho it is said that Mr. Barr's name was on the slate supposedly approved by the factions combining to control the Republican state convention, it is also known that Mr. Barr has long been a supporter of Senator Sherman. It is also true that Mr. Brundage has been recognized as one of the senator's chief lieutenants in Cook county. He was one of those most active in directing the campaign which secured the senator the loyal support of Illinois as long as he was a candidate for the Republican nomination for the presidency. It does not seem probable that Senator Sherman is going to choose between these two trusted supporters, Mr. Barr and Mr. Brundage, and the senator's friends in this locality will continue to believe that he is avoiding partisanship as between friends and is maintaining—to use President Wilson's phrase—"the strictest neutrality."

One of Life's Tragedies

The unfortunate fact that one little mistake made by a man or woman can destroy the reputation justly merited thru years of life, was illustrated in the case of former Senator John M. Thurston of Nebraska, whose death has just occurred. Senator Thurston was a man of commanding presence, of great intellect and with such ability as an orator that he was justly placed in the first rank of those credited with the "silver tongue." He attracted attention first nationally as temporary chairman of the Republican national convention in 1888, and rapidly grew in public favor until 1895, when he was elected senator. In the senate he speedily became a conspicuous figure.

It was while serving as a member of the senate that his wife died and the public had come to know him so intimately that the somewhat dramatic details of her death touched a chord of public sympathy. Within a comparatively short time after the death of his wife there came announcement of the senator's engagement to another. Then shortly afterward appeared a sentimental poem, "The Red Rose," which the senator was reputed to have written and dedicated to his bride to be. So great had been the revulsion of feeling when the senator's engagement was announced that newspapers everywhere took up the poem and so numerous were the parodies that the senator was speedily transformed from a popular idol to a laughing stock. It is said that the poem had really been written in the senator's youth, but that fact had no effect on the result, and it is true that the publication of that poem and the parodies it inspired actually drove the senator from public life and the country lost the services of a man well fitted for leadership.

CHILDREN PRESENT CINDERELLA
ON MILLER WEIR'S LAWN

Parts Taken by Children Without Assistance of Grown Ups—Miss Eloise Kennedy Wrote Speaking Parts, Arranged Music and Directed Play.

A number of parents and friends were delightfully surprised Thursday evening when a dozen children, ranging in ages from six to fourteen years presented the charming children's operetta, Cinderella. The children are all playmates and reside about West State street near the high school. They have been advertising a "show" for some time, but an air of mystery has prevailed as to the nature of the program. Thursday evening a large audience gathered on the spacious lawn just east of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miller Weir and were prepared to be entertained. Little did they expect that the children were to present an operetta which usually takes time and worry from grown ups to give to any degree of perfection.

The costumes were designed by the children. They made a secret raid on the garrets in their respective homes and many cast off garments were made to appear as the costumes worn when Cinderella was really a girl.

The credit in a large measure must go to Miss Eloise Kennedy, aged fourteen, who conceived the idea, wrote the parts and directed the performance in general. She herself played the part of Cinderella and each one of the children carried his or her part in a manner far above the expectations of the fondest parents.

The characters follow:
Cinderella—Eloise Kennedy.
The Prince—Walter Madden.
The Mother—Dorothy Hairgrove.
Fairly Godmother—Joyce Sanders.
Cinderella's sisters—Dorothy Williamson and Frances Griswold.
Dancers and Chorus—Agnes Kennedy, Mary Lee Kepling, Max Thompson, Helen Brennan, Frances Brennan, Louise Jerkinson, David Lander, Leah Kennedy, Ursula Brockhouse and Mary Margaret Boland.

THOUSANDS WITNESS THIRD DAY'S RACING AT GRIGGSVILLE

Horses Make Good Time on Fast Track—King B Springs Surprise in 2:25 Pace—The Results.

Griggsville, Ill., Aug. 9.—Fully five thousand people crowded to grandstand at the Griggsville fair of day and as many as 200 automobiles were filled with spectators around the track. The day was a gala one for all horsemen and some good races were seen. The track had never been in better condition and the day was an ideal one for racing. The surprise of the day came in the 2:25 pace, in which The Aim, owned by George Casle of Chicago, was picked by most authorities to take the money, only placed third in three straight heats, the race being won by King B, a Griggsville horse owned by W. J. Creaseley. In the 2:10 pace Buck Muscovite won three straight heats.

NEW LUBRICANT RESISTS HEAT
PREVENTS RAPID SEDIMENTATION

Ordinary oil breaks down under the terrific heat of an automobile engine. Within a few hours, black sediment is formed which partially clogs out the remaining liquid from the friction points where lubrication is most vital. Such under-supply of oil causes friction between the metal surfaces, intense heat, loss of power and expensive repairs.

The new lubricant that resists heat prevents rapid sedimentation, insures general lubrication, and, except where mechanical faults exist, prevents carburetor.

Now make a test run over a familiar road—up steep hills and along straight, level stretches. Keep a record of oil and gasoline mileage. You will find that your motor has altogether new pickup and hill climbing ability. Vedol enables you to get the maximum mechanical efficiency from your car and to reduce your expenses. Get a five-gallon can of Vedol, and make this convincing road test.

Relative Oil Destruction
The contents of the bottles shown, illustrate the relative durability of ordinary oil and of Vedol the new lubricant that resists heat. Vedol deposits only a small fraction as much sediment as ordinary oils.

There is a fundamental difference between ordinary oils and Vedol. Ordinary oils are unstable and therefore unserviceable because of non-heat-resisting chemical structure. Special processes of manufacture developed by this company and the use of Pennsylvania paraffine-base crude oil give Vedol, the new lubricant, its unusual chemical structure, and its remarkable heat-resisting ability.

JACKSONVILLE GAYLY DECORATED FOR BURLINGTON WAY MEET

Flags and Streamers Numerous In Business District—Big Gathering Is Promised.

Seldom has the business district of Jacksonville been so profusely decorated as is now the case in preparation for the annual meeting of the Burlington Way association. Streamers and flags are displayed from wires all about the square and on streets adjacent. The court house is handsomely decorated and a number of merchants have already placed flags and draperies in position. Others are planning to attend to this work today and tomorrow and certainly when the auto visitors come from the many cities along the Burlington Way they will find Jacksonville in gala attire.

While the red, white and blue predominates in the decorations, it is noticeable that some other colors as the official orange and white, have been used with good effect. Decorations add very materially to the air of hospitality and good fellowship for any such gathering as that which is to be held in Jacksonville Monday, and everything indicates that enthusiasm of no uncertain kind will prevail.

LIGHT COMPANY GIVES NOTICE OF APPEAL

Will Take Jacksonville Rate Case Before Sangamon County Circuit Court.

In Springfield Thursday attorneys for the Jacksonville Railway & Light company filed with the state utilities commission a notice of appeal from the commission's finding in the Jacksonville rate case. Under the law the company has the right of appeal to the Sangamon county circuit court and it is probable that a stay of execution will be asked to prevent the rates ordered by the commission becoming effective. The stay will no doubt be ordered and the company required to give bond for the protection of consumers. The case will in all probability find its way to the supreme court.

and since her mother's death Miss Ohler has remained with her father who is the only near relative that survives her death.

Miss Ohler was a faithful and devoted daughter, and has always lead a Christian life. She was a member

Christian loyalty.

We put it up to Hundreds of Dentists

Long before SENRECO was offered to you we submitted it to hundreds of dentists, requesting that they put it to every test. Told them that we believed Senreco to be an unusually good dentifrice, especially as to its cleansing qualities and its remedial action on sore, soft, bleeding gums; in the treatment of Pyorrhea, etc. Submitted the formula and asked them their opinion. They tested Senreco from every angle; some going even so far as to make a chemical analysis—

And They Voted Yes

With practically one accord—said:

"Senreco appeals to me more than any dentifrice I have ever seen. I cannot say too much for Senreco. It's one of the best I have used. I can recommend Senreco as the best. 'Makes the teeth glisten and is free from injurious ingredients, including pumice and grit.' 'I am indeed glad to get a tooth paste that does the work.' 'Congratulations you on formulating a dentifrice that gives one a new idea of mouth cleanliness, etc.' (These quotations are from the dentists' reports. Originals on file at our office.)

With such endorsements from the men who know why not go to your dealer today and get a tube of SENRECO—25c. Keep your teeth REALLY CLEAN, and protect yourself against Pyorrhea and decay.

A copy of the folder, "The Most General Disease in the World" together with a liberal trial size tube of SENRECO will be mailed you for 4c in stamps. The Sentinel Remedies Co., Inc., Dept. B, Masonic Temple, Cincinnati, Ohio.

SOME RAPID TRAVELING.

Mrs. Lillian Carpenter is enjoying a visit from her friends, Misses Winnifred and Gloria Randall of Peoria. They decided they would like to see St. Louis and also decided not to take the train which Mr. Carpenter conducts every morning southward at 6:30 at ten minutes after 4 they started in their Ford and Mr. Carpenter agreed to wait for them at the hotel in St. Louis. Mrs. Carpenter says they didn't especially try to hurry any but when Mr. Carpenter arrived at 9:30 at the hotel he found the party waiting for him, just as if they had been there a long time.

They started back about 4 p. m. and had supper on the way and a blow out but Mrs. Carpenter's son Byron who was the chauffeur, soon fixed that and they were waiting for Mr. Carpenter at home when he arrived after leaving his train. Byron does not make any special pretense as a chauffeur but generally does his best in a careful manner.

MARTIN FAMILY HELD REUNION AT NICHOLS PARK

Large Number Gathered There for Annual Event—Mrs. Carrie Anderson Oldest Person in Company—Officers Elected

Yesterday was the day for the reunion of the Martin family and as usual it was a fine success. It was held at Nichols Park as usual and the pavilion on the south side of the lake was placed at the service of the merrymakers and all was favorable for the enjoyment of the day. It was a bit sad to miss the familiar faces seen so many times on these occasions, W. C. Self, John Martin, Mrs. J. H. Myers and others, but that is the way of the world. Many of the younger generation are coming on to fill their places. The event is especially kept up by descendants of Charles Martin of Kentucky and he has a number of relatives of whom he might be proud were he here to enjoy the day.

The oldest and most honored attendant was Mrs. Carrie Anderson of Lincoln, Ill. She is a sister of the late John Martin and is 86 years old but is spry and active. Her son, Logan Anderson, is a prominent attorney in Lincoln. Her brother James, 94 years old and father of Mrs. George Swain, came all the way from Los Angeles to attend the reunion but was recalled by the death of his wife. His son Charles went with him and will bring him back to live here.

Probably the youngest member of the party was Master William Thompson of Prentice. The young gentleman is eight weeks old and while he had considerable to attract his attention he offered no remarks during the day but silently acquiesced in all that was done.

The dinner of course was a superb affair and finely served. Tables were set in the eating pavilion on the south side of the park and the gathering made welcome as could be. The ladies of the company tried themselves and certainly they succeeded for the tables were set with an array of good things leaving nothing to be desired.

After dinner officers were chosen for the ensuing year.

The New Officers

The following were elected:

President—Charles W. Martin of the Ebenezer neighborhood.

First vice president—Charles Martin of Jacksonville.

Second vice president—James Martin.

Secretary—Mrs. Edith Davies.

Corresponding secretary—Miss Mae Martin.

Treasurer—Mrs. Frank Green.

Culinary committee—Mrs. George Thompson, chairman; Mrs. Molly Self, Mrs. Lou Self, Mrs. Charles Martin of Jacksonville, Mrs. George Swain and Miss Lou Martin.

There were no formal exercises but the day was devoted to a general good time and at that all succeeded most admirably.

Those present were: Mrs. John Bunn of Bloomington, a daughter of Mrs. Anderson; Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison; Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Walker and daughter Drucy Lee, St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. George Swain, Sinclair; Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Thompson and son William Prentice; Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin and children Eulah, Gladys and Aileen, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Martin, B. W. Martin and Evalene, all of the Ebenezer neighborhood; Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin and little son, Miss Mae Martin and Floyd Martin, all of Litchfield; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green and Carl and Frances Pitner, of Strawns; Mrs. William Davies and John children, Dorothy Davies and John Stigall, of the Salem neighborhood; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Black and children, Clyde, Paul, Ida, and Miss Mary Black of Jacksonville; James Martin, Miss Lou Martin, Theodore Martin and children, Murray and Elizabeth Martin; Mrs. Charles Marshall and children, Lester, Muriel and Miss Evalina Martin of Jacksonville; Miss Mary Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Self and daughters, Misses Marian and Helen of Jacksonville; Mrs. Clara Osterholt and children, Herman, Lulu, Danah and Frances of Ashland; Harry Myers of Mt. Sterling; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weber and family of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. Al Baldwin and Miss Frances Boston, and Mrs. Herman Weber also of Jacksonville.

SPORTING NOTES.

Even pasturing with the Reds doesn't take the lustre off the brilliant work of Hal Chase.

Without the service of Tris Speaker the Cleveland Indians will find plenty to do to keep in sight in the American league tussle.

Just as the Braves were showing the stuff that champions are made of, Hank Gowdy busted the best thumb he owns and will be out of the game for a week or two.

Manager Fielder Jones announces that the Browns have graduated from the easy picking class and from now on will slam every American league team they run against.

Speaking of the cracking of several of our very best pennant contenders, Manager Wilbert Robinson of the Brooklyn Robins opines that there is nothing like that in the Robins family.

Baseball critics who predicted the fading of the Red Sox thru the loss of Speaker have retreated across the field and taken up a new position behind the scoreboard.

About the only way Connie Mack can break even is to provide the Athletics with skilling regalla and send 'em to Norway. Their ability to slide downward would cop the world's record.

It does seem that the breaks are always against some of our pastimers. There's Bobby Wallace. Bobby quit the Browns to become an umpire. And now he has quit umpiring to rejoin the Browns.

Tilly Shafer, who quit the Giants and retired from the game, declares there is more action in golf than in baseball. We never heard of any riots on the golf links.

After waiting long and patiently for his couple of million dollars' worth of White Sox to show something, Charley Comiskey now can plainly see the 1916 banner on the center field flagpole.

Pitcher Cicotte is giving Faber a good run for the leadership among the White Sox heavies. Very good, Eddie.

News of the Athletics' doings has now narrowed down to the writing up of Larry LaJole. There is nothing else of interest ever happens
among the Mackmen.

Now that he has his Cubs lined up for the great drive against the National league strongholds, all that General Tinker and his troops have to do is to take New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Brooklyn.

Honus Wagner would like to have the scribes lay off the big writeups on his wonderful work until after the close of the season. Two or three hundred columns about Honus had just been published when his battin average began to shrink.

The Giants now have the same infield—Merkle, Doyle, Fletcher and Herzog—with which they won the championships of 1911, 1912 and 1913. Having stopped winning pen-nants at '13 the chances are that the Giants will remain stopped.

PEACE TALK IN HUNGRIAN CHAMBER LOWERS WHEAT

Fresh Advances in Quotations Fail to Hold and Market Closes Unsettled 1/2 To 3/4 of a Cent Net Lower.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—Peace talk in the Hungarian chamber of deputies helped today to cool off the ardor of speculators who had been anxious to buy wheat. Fresh advances in quotations failed to hold and the market closed unsettled 1/2 to 3/4 net lower with Sept. at $1.44 to $1.44 1/4 and
Dec. at $1.47 1/2. Corn lost 1 to 1 1/4
1/2 and oats 1/2 to 3/4.

The outcome in provisions was an advance of 15 to 25c.

The majority of wheat traders earlier showed signs of much more caution than yesterday. Assertions that crop damage had perhaps already been discounted enough by the big rise in values led to some weakness at the start, but reports of unseasonable frost in Canada brought about a temporary bulge that lifted the market well above yesterday's tip-top figures. Rains in Iowa and Nebraska together with predictions of showers elsewhere had a depressing influence on the corn market. Increasing complaints of drought in Illinois, however, tended to check the decline.

Oats gave way with wheat and corn.

Hogs at the highest quotations in six years sent the provision market sharply upstage.

I OWE MY HEALTH

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Washington Park, Ill.—“I am the mother of four children and have suffered with female trouble, backache, nervous spells and the blues. My children's loud talking and romping would make me so nervous I could just tear everything to pieces and I would ache all over and feel so sick that I would not want anyone to talk to me at times. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills restored me to health and I want to thank you for the good they have done me. I have had quite a bit of trouble and worry but it does not affect my youthful looks. My friends say 'Why do you look so young and well?' I owe it all to the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies.”—Mrs. ROBT. STROPEL, Moore Avenue, Washington Park, Illinois.

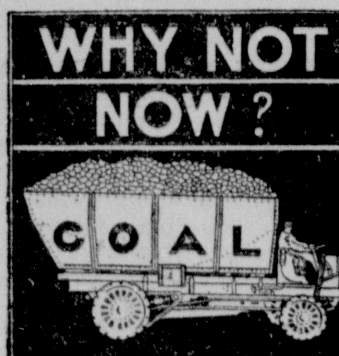

We wish every woman who suffers from female troubles, nervousness, backache or the blues could see the letters written by women made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you have any symptom about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free of charge.

LOCAL TOURISTS FOUND MUCH TO INTEREST IN CANADA

Loyalty of Citizens To English Government Is Sublime—Farms Offer Suggestions Which Might Well Be Followed In Illinois.

Jacksonville people recently in Canada found it a land of great beauty and interest. The land is far inferior to that of Illinois; the fields are smaller and the cultivation far more careful. Weeds are scarce; each farmer in nearly all cases, has a silo and shelter for his live stock and implements. Scarcely ever is a tool or implement to be seen except when in use and a resident said they often take them in at night and surely so if rain threatens.

The quality of all stock is far superior to that seen here. Holstein cows largely prevail while the horses are fine and the hogs excellent. Of course it is only on such rich land as that of Illinois that a farmer can afford to raise scrub stock, leave his tools and implements out in the weather and not cultivate his land thoroughly. Fences are primitive. They are made mostly of rails the ends overlapping and held in place by two upright stakes and over these two stakes in the form of a letter X are placed and a rider above them.

There is a general air and appearance of thrift and prosperity which is pleasing to see and integrity is characteristic of a Canadian farmer or town resident.

The loyalty of Canada to the mother country is something sublime. When troops were called for at first the chief official said he thought Canada would furnish 100,000 but some doubted. Already 350,000 have enlisted and now the final figure is placed at 500,000 and it will be reached if need be. The volunteers in the brown uniforms are seen on every hand. In Toronto they ride on the street cars free of charge. If within the vicinity of a church they are required to attend services once on Sunday.

The pay of a British soldier is much better than that given in this country. He gets a dollar a day, his dependent family is paid and in case of disability, wholly or partial he is well rewarded as are also his dependent ones.

One thing in Canada caused the writer to make havoc with the tenth commandment and that was the beautiful lakes, large and small, which abound in that part of the world. If even one of the smaller ones could only be added to our park what a grand thing it would be.

Near one of them the interurban railway company has a beautiful park supplied with a pavilion, boats, playground accessories and a few acres of woodland and grass. The employees have an annual picnic there and it is attended by a great many in addition to themselves and is an occasion of rare sport. Style and city manners are laid aside while men, women, girls and boys run races and do all sorts of athletic stunts. A substantial meal with tea, coffee and milk in abundance is served each guest and all at most reasonable prices; the naptha lunch is free and the day is given up to pleasure of all kinds and fully enjoyed.

The general topography of the land is fine and attractive. The landscape consists of hills and valleys, not steep enough to be wearisome, while fields some green with growing crops and others yellow with ripening grain form a pleasing variety with the frequent forests of both evergreen and deciduous trees.

The neighborly feeling between Canada and the United States is fine and it never less. A cordial greeting awaits every visitor from "America," as they style the United States and their hospitality is splendid. There are countless resorts in the vicinity of the lovely lakes and no part of the land offers greater attractions to the tourist than our neighbors to the north.

Niagara Falls city is now as has been case for years, the mecca of tens of thousands of visitors from nearly all parts of the civilized world and nowhere in Europe is there a spectacle equal to it in grandeur and it is to be hoped that corporate greed will not succeed in inducing the lawmakers in either Canada or our land to permit the spectacle to lessen for the sake of supplying power to mills and factories. As it is now a portion on the falls has been deleted and the power obtained supplies lights for Buffalo and Niagara Falls and runs the street cars of both cities and does other work in addition.

One thing disgusts every visitor. The park adjacent to the falls is supplied with crushed cinder walks and the visitor sinks two or three inches into the stuff at every step and if he wears low cut shoes his feet are the color of ink at night. It would seem as if the vast throngs of visitors were entitled to something a little better. Nearly half the places in the city have rooms to let and generally prices for board and lodging are reasonable.

The ride down the gorge and across Lake Ontario to Toronto, Canada, is delightful and taken by thousands. Toronto is a typical Canadian city, still growing and decidedly cosmopolitan in many respects. It has some citizens worthy of admiration. One has given a beautiful hospital for sick children and the writer was privileged to inspect it. It is admirably managed and the suffering little ones of whom there are many, seem cheerful and well cared for. The donor, Mr. Robertson, is proprietor of one of the leading dairies and is a very pleasant gentleman. The hospital has 225 beds, has an orthopedic, dental and surgical departments and everything is admirably managed. The general hospital is also the gift of liberal citizens who have erected a plant occupying an entire block. It has 720 beds and all sorts of departments and each morning the poor who call or bring children are treated at a clinic free of charge and various doctors take turns in attending to this duty.

A recent gift is a nurse's home for the 225 ladies thus employed. The writer was privileged to see all of the hospital his time would permit and especially the nurses' home. The latter is a fine building and up to date tho it may be said it lacks some of the advantages possessed by the one at Passavant hospital. It has no sleeping porch and the bath rooms are on one floor only. The rooms are no better or larger but it is a grand structure. The portrait of the donor hangs in the main hall and the likeness of his wife in whose name it was built hangs near by.

In the general hospital the city or county pays a dollar a day for the care of patients. Others pay $10 and $12 a week where there are three in a room and $20 where there are two in a room. Private rooms cost $25 to $100 a week. What could be done here with such prices?

The lake is of course a great possession and the beaches are thronged with bathers seeking relief from the excessive heat which has been about as oppressive there as here. As a rule the quality of the buildings in the city will hardly compare favorably with that of Chicago but are about on a par with those of St. Louis. There is elsewhere in the dominion, there is one refreshing rule both in the city and thruout the dominion and that is the observance of the holy day. Business houses, excepting restaurants and the like, are closed front and rear and stay closed all day and the result is all for good.

Newmarket, a beautiful little city nestling among the hills, 27 miles north of Toronto, was the place principally visited and to say the people of that place are hospitable is putting it mildly. They are that and much more and delightful entertainers. The Metropolitan interurban car line has cars reaching it each hour from Toronto and the trip is made in ninety minutes very comfortably. These interurban lines run in every direction and the frequency of small towns and the thickly settled country make them profitable.

HOME FARM THEMES.

Effect of Acre Yield on Income.
The argument is perhaps as old as agriculture, that farmers should not try to increase their acre yields, because with larger production come reduced prices. Even the United States Department of Agriculture has emphasized the fact that the farmers of the United States sometimes receive more money for a small crop than from a large one.

The Missouri Agricultural Experiment Station has recently reported an investigation covering 670 individual farms, in which the size of the farms, the comparative acre-yields of crops, and the labor income, have all been ascertained.

Of these farms, 43 were 40 acres or less in size, and 21 of these with an average acre-yield of 82 gave an average labor income of $82 a year, while 28 farms yielding above 90 per cent of normal gave $225 as the average labor income.

There were 159 farms of 40 to 80 acres each. Of these, 79 gave less than 90 per cent yields and an average labor income of $162, while 80 farms yielding above 90 per cent furnished an average income of $314.

Of 157 farms containing from 80 to 120 acres, 68 produced less than 90 per cent of a crop and $150 income, while 89 produced more than 90 per cent yields and $413 average labor income.

Of 185 farms of 120 to 200 acres, 62 yielded less than 90 per cent crops and only $266 income, while 123 produced more than 90 per cent crops and $587 average labor income.

There were 103 farms of 200 to 400 acres, of which 27 produced less than 90 per cent crops and $532 income, while 76 farms made more than 90 per cent yields and gave an average labor income of $888.

In the group of farms above 400 acres only 17 were investigated. Of these, 8 produced less than average yields made $445 labor income, while 9 yielding above the average gave $1820 as the labor income.

As stated in the report by the Missouri Station, "the labor income on the farm increases uniformly as the crop yield increases."

The individual farmer might as well expect to produce a tidal wave by tossing a pebble into the ocean as to increase the price of farm produce by keeping down his own crop yields.—Dr. C. G. Hopkins in the Farmers' Review, Chicago.

OF TRIP ACROSS CONTINENT

Gathered Around Camp Fire in Carter's Grove, Jacksonville Boys Hear Pedestrian Describe Adventures.

Jacksonville boy scouts spent an enjoyable evening Thursday, when, after the completion of a delicious camp fire supper, they heard Robert Burns, long distance walker, tell of his experiences in pacing the Lincoln Highway from coast to coast. Mr. Burns left San Francisco with ten cents, a sum which he spent in crossing the ferry. He made his way from town to town, selling post cards, literature, etc., to gain support. It was in the desert districts of Nevada and Utah that he suffered greatest hardships. Alkali water only could be found. Often he made his bed beneath a sage clump and more than once he awoke to hear the coyotes nearby cry.

The boys left the Y. M. C. A. building at 5:30 o'clock and after arriving at the grove took part in a baseball game. By 6:30 a number of the scouts who are working for the summer arrived and supper was served. After talks by Carl H. Weber, chief of the scout council, H. A. Brewer, the scout master, and Mr. Burns, the boys were treated to fresh cider by Roger Carter.

Mr. Burns drew from his wide outdoor experience and showed the boys a new method of making coffee, which all appreciated.

JOHN J. BROWN PYTHIAN SUPREME
CHANCELLOR WELL KNOWN HERE

Vandalia Man Often Heard in Addresses In This City—John J. Reeve Will Hold Highest Pythian Office In the State in 1917.

John J. Brown of Vandalia, who was recently elected supreme chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, is well known in Jacksonville. In addition to being prominent in Pythianism and now holding the highest office in the gift of the order, Mr. Brown has also been active in Odd Fellowship. On various occasions he has been in Jacksonville to address I. O. O. F. gatherings. His life history is one of great interest as he was taken as a mere waif into a childless home. There he was well cared for but his foster parents were by no means wealthy and he has earned the honor that has come to him through his own efforts. The position that Mr. Brown holds now is the same as that held for one term by the late Charles A. Barnes.

It is worthy of note in this connection that next year a Jacksonville man will hold the highest office in the state in the Pythian lodge. John J. Reeve is now vice chancellor of Illinois, and at the next meeting of the grand lodge will be chosen to the highest office in the order.

SUCCESS ATTENDS BIG PICNIC
THURSDAY AT WINCHESTER

Ladies of M. E. Church Held Fifteenth Annual Burgoo—The Cake Prizes—Other Scott County News Notes and Personals.

Winchester, Ill., Aug. 9.—A clear day and good roads Thursday favored the ladies of Winchester Methodist church and the fifteenth annual burgoo picnic was attended by visitors from miles around. Much interest was shown in the athletic contests, though it was a source of regret to many that the judges, at the close of the events, had kept no record of winners' names. Following are the cake prizes:

Caramel—Miss Louise Frost.
Chocolate—Mrs. Clifford Mills.
Sunshine cake—Mrs. C. V. Baner.
Spice cake—Mrs. William Baskley.

Marble cake—Mrs. Curtis Carey.
Angel food—Mrs. W. C. Kuechler.
Devil's food—Mrs. Edgar Gibbs.
Cocoa cream cake—Mrs. Charles Burdick.
Nut cake—Miss Kate Rough.
Sweepstakes prize—Mrs. Charles Burdick.

Rolls—Mrs. Warren Watt.
Bread—Mrs. Grant Coolidge.
Among the many visitors present were Mrs. Norman Campbell, Misses Georgia and Ella Hawk, Mr. and Mrs. George Hardwick and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Korty, Merritt; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Curtis, Manchester; Newton Moore and family, Bluffs; James Dugan and family, Beardstown; John Stewart, Exeter; William Hamilton, Naples; Misses Kate and Mary Ellis and Miss Margaret McGhee, White Hall; Andrew Allen and family, John Onken and family and Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Coultas, Chapin; Miss Riemann, Miss Fern Haigh, Miss Winnie Wackerle, Paul Theobald, Misses Effie, Grace and Ora Theobald, Jacksonville.

Excellent music was furnished by the Merritt band. There was no disorder and all facilities for handling the crowds were good.

News Notes and Personals.

E. N. Becker of Chicago is in Winchester for a visit with Paul Nelson. Miss Dorcas Coultas arrived Thursday from Canton to a visit with relatives here.

Mrs. Fred Albers is here from St. Louis for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sperry.

Miss Leola Riggs arrived Thursday from the state of Washington, where during the past winter she was engaged in teaching.

Alfred Schultz is a guest at the home of Mrs. Charles Condit.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hogan, Mrs. Oliver Woodall and Miss Jeanette Taylor motored to Murrayville Wednesday and attended the picnic.

THE ITEM COMPLETED.

In "making up" the paper yesterday morning the item regarding Benjamin Angelo was bereft of about half its contents by some mishap. It should have read:

Benjamin Angelo of Monte Vista, Colorado, is in the city visiting his brother, S. P. Angelo, who he has not seen for 25 years. The visitor was a member of Co. B, 27th Ill. Infantry and went out under Captain Henry Hitt. In this regiment were Captain Chapin of this city and James F. Cowdin of Joy Prairie. The regiment saw hard service and acquitted itself well. Mr. Angelo was made a Mason in Gill lodge at Lynville 8 years ago and has quite a patriarchal feeling regarding that branch of the order.

WITH THE SICK.

George Shaw of South East street, who several days ago fell from a house and suffered a broken arm, is improving in satisfactory manner. Mr. Shaw was engaged in repairing the chimney of a house on Red street when the accident happened. Leslie Robinson of Ashland, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at Dr. Day's hospital, is improving.

BUSY DAYS FOR JACKSONVILLE.

August is considered a very quiet month in Jacksonville, along with other cities in the Mississippi valley, but the coming week and some succeeding days in this month indicate that the general rule is to have a marked exception to prove it. Monday the Burlington Way association convention will be held. Wednesday the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus will unfold its tents on the Thoben property just west of Jacksonville, and on that same date Nichols Park Gun club will open a two-days shooting tournament, and Friday marks the opening of Jacksonville's great chautauqua. That will be the beginning of ten days of high class entertainment. Certainly the people of Jacksonville and surrounding territory will not lack for "something to do" during the next two weeks.

Mr. Holmes is a deaf mute and was born in Hartford, Vt. in 1841. Early in life he went with his parents to Cleveland, O., and afterward the family became residents of St. Louis. Still another change was made to Mt. Sterling, the elder Holmes owning a large farm in Brown county. It was back in 1852 that Mr. Holmes became a student at the State School for the Deaf here and graduated in 1863. A number of friends of the family were present yesterday to extend their congratulations and Mr. Holmes was the recipient of a number of useful gifts.

PUBLIC HEARINGS HELD FOR TWO STREETS

Improvement Board Passes Resolutions For Asphalt on West State and Prairie Streets

The public hearing on the proposed paving for West State street was held by the board of local improvement Thursday morning. The property owners present were John N. Kennedy, C. L. French, H. H. Bancroft, Miss Grace Carter, Mrs. Mary Carriel, Mrs. L. A. Frost, and Charles Rockwell. After hearing the statements made by property owners and having an open discussion of paving, the board adopted a resolution providing for an asphalt pavement and an ordinance will be prepared and presented to the council at the next meeting for a first reading. John Kennedy expressed preference for brick and C. L. French believed that tarvia would make a satisfactory pavement. H. H. Bancroft representing his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bancroft, spoke in favor of asphalt. Miss Grace Carter expressed a preference for monolithic brick and Mrs. Carriel for a creosote block pavement. Mrs. Frost and her brother Mr. Rockwell were not in favor of paving at the present time but were strongly in favor of brick as being the most economical pavement if the improvement is made.

Mayor Rodgers stated that in accordance with usage the property owners who did not attend a hearing and make objection were counted as favoring asphalt, the proposed material for the street, and that considering the total property frontage that the objections made had been comparatively few. The estimate made by the engineer was approved and the resolution providing for the pavement adopted.

The board also held a hearing for the proposed asphalt pavement on Prairie street. There were but ten property owners on this street and eight of them were favorable to asphalt. Mrs. F. D. Martin objected to paving at the present time and the same position was taken by Mrs. Frankenberg. The other property owners present and who preferred asphalt were H. L. Caldwell, Herman Strandberg, Mrs. George Hollinger, Miss Calky, Miss Hamilton, Joseph DeSilva, Joseph Cridland and H. H. Bancroft. After hearing any statements the property owners wished to make the board approved the engineer's estimate for the street and adopted a resolution for the pavement and the ordinance will be prepared in accordance with this action.

A SUGGESTION TO AUTOSISTS. It is said that following the explosion in Peoria Tuesday word has been sent to customers of the Standard Oil company that when filling the gasoline tank on an automobile that the motor must be stopped.

It is frequent occurrence to have the engine running while taking on gas at service stations, but the accident in Peoria recently is sufficient to warrant the precaution of killing the machine while taking on a supply of gasoline.

A tank was being filled in Peoria Tuesday and the motor was left running during the process. A spark from the motor set off the quantity of gas and a serious explosion followed. The safety device was then issued.

A COMMUNICATION
Editor Journal:
Seven interested citizens attending a board of local improvement meeting Thursday morning to consider using asphalt for West State street pavement. One was for it and six against it, but by some peculiar political logic that was counted a majority in favor of asphalt. All residents not there, although a greater number of them have already signed a petition against asphalt, were counted by their absence as voting for the asphalt pavement.

SOUTH JACKSONVILLE RESIDENTS AGITATE SEWERAGE PLANS

Some of Them Will Ask Village Board to Have Engineer Make Estimate of Cost.

A number of property owners in South Jacksonville were strongly in favor of the construction of a sewerage system for that village. A number of residences that are near the Jacksonville city limits have sewerage connections but others are without this convenience unless some private system has been installed. Those who are agitating the improvement will probably ask the village board to secure an engineer to investigate the proposition and make an estimate of the cost. Some of the largest property owners figure that a sewerage system would not only be a great convenience and an additional guaranty of healthful conditions, but that it would be a splendid investment as well.

They believe that the building of an adequate system would have the immediate effect of increasing property values in the village and that there would almost immediately follow a period of building activity. The village has developed in the past few years and because of the improvements and the various new houses erected the realty market there has been quite active. More recently, however there have not been so many changes and some of the property owners believe that all that is now lacking for a decided building boom is the installation of a sewerage system.

SHOWMEN SUPERSTITIOUS

But Owner of Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus an Exception.

Circus folk, like sailors, are perhaps the most superstitious people in the world. They have numerous curious beliefs and all possess pet superstitions. Disease, disaster, and death are presaged in their minds by signs and wonders. Four-leaf clovers, made as pendants in glass, and rabbit's feet set in silver are favorites to ward off evil. Many performers have horseshoes nailed to their trunks for luck and it is an unusual sight to see a showman without an amulet or charm.

To see three white horses in succession and no red-headed woman is a forerunner of good luck. So, too, they declare, is the sight of a boxed corpse in a railroad station, as the train rolls in. It is an ill omen to catch a glimpse of the death receptacle when leaving town. To open an umbrella in the house is sure to result in a shower of trouble, and one's future is risked by going under a ladder. Breaking a mirror is significant of death or seven years' ill luck.

In marked contrast to the popular notions of the rank and file of circus men was the practice of Mr. B. E. Wallace, founder of the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, which comes to Jacksonville Wednesday, August 14. Mr. Wallace always conducted his business along lines to discourage superstition. Friday was his accepted choice upon which to make an important move—the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace circus shows were combined with the Great Wallace Circus on Friday—and he welcomes the figure 13 in any transaction. His marvelously successful career perplexes credulous associates.

More than 400 performers appear with the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus this year. They hail from nearly every country on the globe. The Carl Hagenbeck trained wild animals are a big feature of the show this year. An immense street parade will take place at 10 a. m. circus day. Performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m.

Jessie Rutledge, Jr., of Prentice, was one of the callers in the city yesterday.

PARK BOARD NOTES

At the regular meeting of the park board held Thursday night report was made that the work of oiling the driveways thruout the park has been completed. So many requests were made that this be done that the board yielded and the work has been finished at an expense of $400. However, the money seems to have been well expended and the park is now free from dust. The board has been co-operating in every way possible in preparations for the coming chautauqua, and the dining pavilion has been placed in readiness for use and nothing has been forgotten in the preparations from the board's standpoint.

It was reported that the new grad which has been tested along the park roads has given satisfactory service and the purchase authorized. It has not been possible for the board to have the boat house fitted up as a dressing room for bathers but this will probably be given attention at an early date. The committee to whom the matter of securing fountain and circular sprinklers for the flower beds has been referred reported that the purchases had been made and that the sprinklers are working in a satisfactory way.

As the board does not have funds available for the payment of pressing obligations a committee was directed to endeavor to make arrangements for securing needed funds.

Misses Mary and Rose Wagner were in Murrayville Wednesday attending the picnic. Thursday they spent the day at the home of P. J. Wolfe near Woodson, and in the evening they motored to Woodson to attend the picnic there.

REAR ADMIRAL HOWARD HAS RETIRED FROM SERVICE

Automatically Out As Age Limit is Reached—Had Held Many Important Posts.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—Rear Admiral Thomas B. Howard, who has held many of the most important posts of the navy on both sea and land, was automatically retired from the service today by operation of the age limit. Admiral Howard comes from Illinois and was graduated from the Annapolis academy in 1873. His last important sea duty was as commander of the Pacific fleet. As navigating officer of the Concord he fought with Dewey at Manila Bay and subsequently he saw much active service during the Philippine insurrection. In the celebrated around-the-world cruise of 1908 he was in command of the battleship Ohio. Later he commanded a division of the Atlantic fleet and in 1912-13 he was president of the Naval Examining and Retiring Board.

Admiral Howard is proud of the fact that he owes his naval career to a compact his father made with Grant when the two went to war in 1861. The story begins in Galena, Ill., where the future admiral was born in 1854. As every one knows, one of the unregarded citizens of Galena in the days which immediately preceded the breaking out of civil war was Ulysses S. Grant. He had been captain in the United States army, but he had resigned, and he was poor.

"Bush," said Grant one day to his nearest friend, Bushrod Howard, "we'll have a war, sure, and I'm going."

Bushrod Howard had commanded a company in the Mexican war. He came of a fighting family.

"I agree with you," said he. "And I'm going, too. We'll each raise a company."

"Bush," said Grant, "you can't afford to go to war. If anything happened to you, who would take care of your family?"

"Ulysses," said Howard, "you can't afford to go to war, either. But you're going, aren't you?"

The two men made a friendly compact. If either failed to return from the war, the survivor pledged himself to watch over those left behind.

Captain Howard raised his company, and was killed with most of his men in a railroad accident on his way to the front.

After the war Grant interested himself in Howard's two sons. One was sent to West Point. The other, Thomas D., received an appointment to Annapolis. When he graduated Grant sent him a sum of money.

"Buy what you will," said he, "I've been a boy at graduation time—and I know how many things you'll need."

One of Admiral Howard's most cherished possessions today is the sword he bought with Grant's money.

In the service Howard has been known as a strict disciplinarian, but he has never failed to win the affections of his men in whatever post he has served. Whenever he changed ships an avalanche of requests flooded the navy department from the men who had come in personal contact with the Admiral and wished to follow him.

Perhaps the most picturesque incident in Howard's career was in his service in command of the caravel Pinta, when that ancient Spanish model swashed sidewise across the waters to America at the time of the Chicago World's Fair. The Pinta could not be sailed. Howard's opinion, as expressed later, was that no credit was due to Columbus for discovering America in such a ship. He thought the great navigator was simply blown offshore and couldn't get back. The greatness of Columbus, in his opinion, consisted in his ability to stay on board such a foolish marine contrivance.

SPRINGFIELD WANTS BURLINGTON MEET IN 1917

Springfield motorists are laying careful plans to try to secure the 1917 convention of the Burlington Way. At a recent meeting of the club it was agreed that autoists will gather in the court house square at 9 o'clock and will then make the journey to Jacksonville. It is their expectation that at least 150 people will be in the Springfield party. They will invade this city and join in the slogan "Springfield in 1917." Motorists from a number of towns in Sangamon county outside of Springfield are expected to join the expedition. The Waverly band has been secured to come along and help increase the enthusiasm.

BLAZE AT GATES COAL YARDS THURSDAY EVENING

The fire department was called out at 7:20 o'clock Thursday evening, a small blaze had started in a store shed at the Gates coal yard. The fire was first discovered by some boys who happened to be passing. They immediately notified Taylor Agnew, the Burlington operator, who turned in the alarm. The department made a quick run and the fire was soon extinguished by using only the chemical. The exact origin of the fire is not known, but rumor has it that sparks from a locomotive had fallen in the shed.
